RPAC is the muscle behind the National Association of REALTORS® and represents over 400,000 politically active REALTORS® that members of Congress want as their friends. Every day, new legislation is introduced in city council chambers and state capitols that affects the real estate industry. RPAC funds impact the political process, influencing legislation at the local, state, and national levels. Thanks to RPAC, the voice of REALTORS® can be heard loud and clear!
