This course will provide the student with an up to date look at the National Association of REALTORS® 2018 Code of Ethics. It provides a history of the Code of Ethics, a study of the Code of Ethics and Pathways to Professionalism. In addition, the student will learn the process of filing an ethics complaint and a request for arbitration and how it is adjudicated within the local board/association. Finally, the student will review case interpretations authorized by the National Association of REALTORS® and learn how the cases were evaluated and resolved.

This course also fulfills the National Association of REALTORS® ethics requirement, which must be completed by December 31, 2018

This course will also fulfill an Appraiser member's code of ethics requirement

Important Information:

1. In order to obtain CE credit for a course, you must attend the entire session. Check-in begins one half-hour prior to class start time. No credit will be given to those who arrive late, depart early, or take breaks other than the pre-approved instructor's break.
2. Advance registration required; no walk-ins allowed.
3. Photo ID will be required upon check-in
4. Individual licensees are responsible for keeping track of their CE credits.
5. No written confirmation of class will be mailed—you will be notified if the class is full.
6. If you have any disabilities that require special accommodations, please identify those special needs by emailing general@gatewayrealtors.com
7. If you cannot attend cancellations are due 7 days prior to the class otherwise a NO SHOW charge of $20 will be charged to you

The Greater Gateway Association of REALTORS® reserves the right to cancel any course if a minimum of 12 attendees are not registered by an agreed-upon deadline; you will be notified if the class has been canceled. GGAR reserves the right to cancel class due to inclement weather or other unexpected events. We will make every attempt to notify you via telephone and/or e-mail prior to 7 a.m. the day of the class. Classes that remain in session are non-refundable.
